

Anytown Fire Department

The Anytown Fire Department is recruiting members to become a part of an elite organization that protects and serves the citizens, businesses and visitors of Anytown.

We have openings for firefighters, medics, and people with administrative skills, construction skills, financial skills, and many other areas that you may have expertise in. We're not just about firefighting and emergency work, we are also a business that looks for skills to help administratively manage and maintain our business.
